Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. To whom did John address this letter? [1:1]
He wrote it to the chosen lady and her children.
2. Who do you think the chosen lady and her children were? [1:1]
Perhaps it was a particular church and the people who were part of it. Or, perhaps it was a particular Christian woman and her children.
3. Why did John love the chosen lady and her children? [1:1-2]
He loved them because of the truth that was in them and that would be with them forever.
4. From whom did John say grace, mercy, and peace came? [1:3]
They came from God the Father and Jesus Christ, God's son.
5. Why did John rejoice? [1:4]
John rejoiced because some of the lady's children were walking in truth.
6. What commandment did John say they had from the beginning? [1:5]
They had the commandment to love one another from the beginning.
7. What did John say love is? [1:6]
Love is walking according to God's commandments.
8. What did John call those who did not confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh? [1:7]
John called them the deceiver and the antichrist.
9. What did John tell the believers to be careful not to do? [1:8]
John told the believers to be careful not to lose the things for which they had worked.
10. Who did John say did not have God? [1:9]
Whoever did not remain in the teaching of Christ.

2 John 1:1-13 continued

11. What were believers to do about teachers who did not bring the true teaching about Christ? [1:10]
Believers were not to welcome them into their homes, and they were not to even greet them.
12. Why was a believer instructed to refuse to greet a teacher who did not teach the truth about Christ? 1:11]
By greeting such a teacher, the believer participated in the teacher's evil deeds.
13. What did John hope to do in the future? [1:12]
John hoped to go and speak face to face with the chosen lady and her children.
14. Who else greeted the chosen lady? [1:13]
The children of her chosen sister greeted her.
