Doctrine: Scripture— Divinely Inspired

Biblical Statement

Scripture, also called “The Bible,” is God’s Holy Word written down. It is a very important means by which God makes himself known.

For more than 1,600 years, the Holy Spirit inspired many human authors to write down God’s message accurately.

The Word of God is true in all it teaches. It is reliable for teaching people about God, his salvation through Jesus, and his ultimate plan for future glory. And, it is a guide to how Christians should behave and glorify God with their lives.

The purpose of Scripture is to bring about faith, to instruct, correct, reprove, and strengthen believers, to equip believers for good works, and to help believers understand who God is.

2 Timothy 3:14-17

Background: This passage is from a letter that the Apostle Paul wrote to Timothy, the leader of the church in Ephesus. Paul had started the church and had mentored Timothy. Then he left Timothy to lead this church. In this letter, he gives Timothy additional instruction and encouragement for his position as leader of the church in Ephesus.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ Paul said that Timothy should continue to believe what he has already learned from the Scripture, as he was taught in his home.
- ☐ Paul said that God's Word is divinely given and that it's useful in the believer's life for many things: teaching, rebuking, correcting, training, and equipping for good works.

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. How did Paul describe Scripture in 3:16?
Scripture is inspired by God.
2. How did you understand the word or phrase in your language for "Scripture"? [3:16]
The term "Scripture" means "writings." It refers to God's message that has been written down in the Bible.
3. How did you understand the word or phrase in your language for "inspired by God"? [3:16]
This means God produced the scripture through his Spirit by telling people what to write.
4. What did Paul say that the Scripture is useful for? [3:16]
Scripture is useful in the believer's life for many things: teaching, rebuking, correct, training, and equipping for good works.

Comment Section:

Hebrews 4:12

Background: This verse comes from the book of Hebrews. It is a letter written to the Jews who were believers in Christ. In chapter four, the author used stories from Scripture to teach his readers. Here, the author taught them about why they should obey what is written in Scripture.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ God's word is alive and powerful.
- ☐ God's word is like a double-edged sword that cuts straight through a person's soul and spirit.
- ☐ God's Word judges thoughts, and attitudes inside a person's heart.

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. What did the author compare God's Word to?
A sword
2. How did you understand the word or phrase in your language for "God's Word"?
This is God's message that has been written in the Bible.
3. What are some of the same qualities that are shared between God's word and a sword?
Both are sharp. Each can divide, cut, and separate things that are alike. God's word divides the soul from the spirit, and cuts like a sword, cutting between joints from marrow.
4. By comparing it to a sword, what is the author saying about God's word?
God's word reveals the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

2 Peter 1:20-21

Background: This passage was written by the apostle Peter. Here, he wrote about how prophecy was created, and the Holy Spirit's work in prophecy.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ No prophecy came from man.
- ☐ Men spoke prophecy from God as the Holy Spirit guided them.

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. Who gave the prophets their message? [1:20]
Guided by the Holy Spirit, they spoke from God.
2. What do you think Peter is teaching believers about prophecy by saying that it comes from God? [1:20-21]
Peter is teaching that prophecy is true and believers should pay attention to it.
3. How did you understand the word or phrase in your language for "prophecy"? [1:20-21]
Prophecy is the message given to those whom God chooses to proclaim or interpret his message. These messages were written down to be read or proclaimed so people can hear them.

Doctrine: Missions

Biblical Statement

Christ has commanded all believers to tell others about the Gospel and to make disciples. God's message is meant to be heard in all places in all the world.

Matthew 28:18-20

Background: The events in this passage take place after Jesus had died and come back to life. This is Jesus' last command to his disciples in the Gospel of Matthew.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ Jesus told his disciples all authority in heaven and earth was given to him.
- ☐ He told them to go make disciples of all nations.
- ☐ They should baptize people in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- ☐ Jesus said to the disciples that they should teach others to obey his commands.
- ☐ Jesus said, "I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. In 3:16 who does God love?
The world, all people in the world, everyone.
2. What did God do because he loved the world? [3:16]
God sent his one and only Son.
3. What does this passage say someone has to do to have eternal life? [3:16]
He must believe in the Son of God.
4. How did you understand the phrase in your language for "believe in"? [3:16]
To "believe in" someone means to "trust in" that person. It means to trust that the person is who he says he is, that he speaks the truth and that he will do what he has promised to do.
5. How do you think people should live their lives after they "believe in" Jesus? [3:16]
When they believe in Jesus they should obey Jesus because they believe what he teaches is true.
6. How did you understand the phrase in your language for "eternal life"? [3:16]
Living with God forever.
7. How did Jesus describe those who do not believe? [3:18]
They are "already condemned." This means that God will punish these people because they sinned and did not believe in Jesus for forgiveness.

Comment Section:

Acts 1:8

Background: This account is from Luke's second book. The events in this passage took place after Jesus had died and come back to life. In this passage, Jesus spoke his last message to his disciples before he went back to heaven.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ Jesus said to the disciples that they would receive power from the Holy Spirit.
- ☐ The disciples will be Jesus' witnesses in Jerusalem, all of Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. What did Jesus say his disciples would receive?
Power
2. When would they receive power?
When the Holy Spirit comes upon them.
3. After the Holy Spirit comes upon the disciples what will they be for Jesus?
They will be his witness.
4. How do you understand the phrase in your language for "witness"?
The term "witness" refers to a person who has personally experienced something that happened. Usually, a witness is also someone who testifies about what they know is true.
5. Where will the disciples be witnesses for Jesus?
In Jerusalem, all of Judea and Samaria, and the whole world.

Romans 10:13-15

Background: This passage is from a letter that Paul wrote to the Christians in Rome. Here, Paul had been writing about the nation of Israel, and he stated that the Jews can also be saved if they believe in Jesus.

Team Leader: This passage has several rhetorical questions. Some languages may translate these questions as statements. It may be helpful to determine before the review whether your translation has rhetorical questions or statements.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ Everyone who calls on the Lord will be saved.
- ☐ To call on him they must believe.
- ☐ To believe they must hear.
- ☐ To hear there must be a preacher.
- ☐ For people to preach, they must be sent.
- ☐ "How beautiful are the feet of those who proclaim glad tidings of good things."

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. According to verse 13, who will be saved?
Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord.
2. How do you understand the phrase in your language for "call on the name of the Lord"? [10:13]
This phrase means to ask the Lord for help. Here it means for a person to ask the Lord to save him and forgive his sins.
3. In the first part of verse 14, what did Paul say must happen before they can call on the name of the Lord?
They must believe in the Lord.
4. In the second part of verse 14, what must happen before they can believe?
They must hear about the Lord.
5. In the last part of verse 14, what must happen before they hear about the Lord?
There must be a preacher to tell them about the Lord.
6. In the first part of verse 15, what must happen before a person can preach about the Lord?
Someone must send the preacher to go and tell others about the Lord.
7. At the end of verse 15 Paul quoted from the Old Testament. What did Paul say?
How beautiful are the feet of those who proclaim glad tidings of good things.
8. How do you understand the phrase in your language for "how beautiful are the feet"? [10:15]
The phrase means that the person who proclaims good tidings is wonderful.

Doctrine: The Christian Family

Biblical Statement

God designed the family to serve and glorify him. Husbands and wives are to love and respect each other. Parents are to love and discipline their children. Children are to obey their parents.

Ephesians 5:21-33

Background: This is taken from Paul's letter to the believers in Ephesus. Here Paul taught Christians how they should behave towards each other within their families.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ Christians are to submit to one another in honor to Christ.
- ☐ Wives are to submit to their husbands as to the Lord.
- ☐ Husbands are the head of their wives as Christ is head of the Church. (Husbands have authority over the wives as Christ has authority over the Church.)
- ☐ Husbands are to love their wives as Christ loves the Church.
- ☐ Christ gave himself to make the Church pure and holy.
- ☐ Husbands should love their wives as they love their own bodies.
- ☐ Man will leave his parents and be joined to his wife; they will become one flesh.
- ☐ Hidden truth: Paul is speaking about Christ and the church.

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. In verse 21, what did Paul tell Christians to do?
Paul told them to submit to one another in reverence to Christ.
2. How do you understand the phrase in your language for "submit"? [5:21-22]
Does your word/phrase for "submit" mean the same thing in 5:22 as it does in 5:21?
It means one person is willing to do what the other person wants them to do. Ensure the same word or phrase is used in both verses. If the same word/phrase is not used both in 5:21 and 5:22, go to the follow-up section before proceeding to the next questions. Try to determine what the different words mean in their context.
3. In verse 22 what does Paul command wives to do?
Submit to their husbands, as to the Lord.
4. In verse 23, what did Paul say is the reason that wives should submit to their husbands?
For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church.
5. How do you understand the phrase in your language for "head of"? [5:23]
The phrase "head of" means to have authority over someone. The husband is the leader of the wife just as Jesus is the leader of the Church.
6. In verse 25 what did Paul command husbands to do?
Husbands must love their wives as Christ loved the church.
7. In verses 26-27 what did Paul say that Christ did for the church?
Jesus died for the church to make it holy so that the church could belong to him.

Ephesians 5:21-33 continued

8. In verse 28 how did Paul say husbands should love their wives?
As a husband loves his own body, he should love his wife.
9. In verse 29 how did Paul describe the way a person treats his own body with how Christ treats the church?
A person nourishes his body and treats it with care, just as Christ treats the church.
10. In verse 31 what did Paul say a man would do?
He would leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.
11. How do you understand the phrase in your language for “joined to his wife” and “two will become one flesh”? [5:31]
In marriage the husband and wife become like they are one body.
12. In verse 33, what is Paul’s command to husbands and wives?
Each of you also must love his own wife as himself, and the wife must respect her husband.
